

.....
(stamp)

REFERRAL

Pursuant to Paragraph 3 of the Directive of the Minister of Health of 26 August, 2019 on medical examinations of applicants for post-primary or higher education schools and for qualifying vocational courses, students of these schools, higher education students, students of qualifying vocational courses as well as doctoral students (Journal of Laws, Item 1651),

I refer for medical examinations

preliminary / periodic / control*

the applicant for studies / student/ doctoral student* of the Medical University of Lodz:

Name and surname:

Date of birth: PESEL number.....

Passport number.....

Year of study: year Field of study: Medicine

During studies at the Medical University of Lodz, the applicant will be exposed to the following factors which may be harmful, hazardous or dangerous to health:

Physical factors:

- ionizing radiation
- laser radiation
- ultraviolet radiation
- electromagnetic radiation and computer-associated risks
- work in a forced position – musculo-skeletal system overload
- lifting and moving loads
- physical effort
- work at a display screen and an optical microscope
- work in a forced position
- work requiring monotype limb motions
- work with optical or electron microscopes - possibility of organ of vision overload

Chemical factors:

- chemical agents, including predominantly formaldehyde and organic solvents
- increased risk of skin damage and allergies
- irritating and allergenic chemical agents, organic solvents, acids, alkali and other chemicals (e.g. medications)
- inorganic compounds (e.g. acids, bases, inorganic salts, metal and nonmetal oxides)
- organic solvents (e.g. chloroform, xylene, toluene, ethyl acetate, acetone, ethyl ether)
- dust, solid and liquid aerosols

Biological factors:

- allergenic agents (mainly chromium, latex)
- viral diseases (mainly viral hepatitis A)
- blood transmitted infections (hepatitis B and C, HIV)
- infectious and parasitic diseases
- biological factors - infectious biological material
- contact with biological material (blood, serum, tissues)
- potential bacteriological contamination of research materials
- nosocomial infections

.....
(date of issue of the referral, stamp and signature of the person referring for examinations)

*Check relevant box  for persons without PESEL number